Re: Amend Third Party Claims Administrator Agreement

Executive Summary

This Resolution amends the current agreement between the City of Columbia, MO and Brentwood Services Administrators, Inc. for third party administrator services.

Discussion

This Resolution amends the current agreement between the city of Columbia, MO and Brentwood Services Administrators, Inc. for third party administrator services.

Amendments, attached in the form of Exhibit A, include a change in reference to the "Missouri Department of Insurance" to "Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Division of Workers' Compensation". Additionally, amends the original agreement with the following language; "To the City's right to assume the control and handling of any claim (other than workers' compensation and employer's liability claims) and to City's right to transfer any claims (including workers' compensation and employer's liability claims) to another third party administrator approved by the State of Missouri at any time, and Administrator agrees to deliver promptly any such claim file to City with it may request, but without any off set or deduction from any of the fees or charges paid or payable by City to Brentwood".
