V. OLD BUSINESS

National League of Cities Conference - Staff Update

Staff received no replies to emails for those who expressed interest in attending the NLC Conference. After further discussion it was determined that Emily Crumbliss would like to attend.

City Council Meeting - Attendee Updates

Shubha Gautam and Langston Schatz-Mitchell attended separate Council meetings and brought back their views and thoughts about what was discussed.

Members discussed who would attend the upcoming Council meetings and it was determined that Helen Hinnant-Root will attend the October 16 meeting and Hazel Keithahn will attend the November 6 meeting. Members then discussed what sort of topics relating to the youth they could bring to Council under the reports portion of the agenda.

Council member Lovelady also mentioned it would be beneficial for a YAC member to have a seat on the Violence Prevention Committee. Staff will ask what this process looks like.

Podcast Discussion

Members discussed moving forward with doing a Podcast that would be effective in reaching youth in the community and spreading the word about the Youth Advisory Council. Council member Lovelady suggested creating a schedule to do the Podcasts. Some topics for different Podcasts included:

- What is YAC?
- Interview youth in the Community and ask them what they feel is important to them.

Members discussed interviewing youth before the next meeting as well as creating a survey to send out to students throughout the high schools in Columbia. They also discussed meeting with different clubs within CPS to spread the word.

Youth Summit - March/April 2024

Members discussed details for the 2024 Youth Summit. The tentative date is set for April 7, 2023. Shubha Gautam, Helen Hinnant Root, Langston Schatz-Mitchell and Jiya Shetty volunteered to be on the Planning Committee.
