Sec. 16-67. Fines for corporations.

(a) A sentence to pay a fine, when imposed on a corporation for an offense defined in this article or for any offense defined outside this article for which no special corporate fine is specified, shall be a sentence to pay an amount, fixed by the court, not exceeding:

(b) In the case of an offense defined outside this article, if a special fine for a corporation is expressly specified in the ordinance that defines the offense, the fine fixed by the court shall be an amount within the limits specified in the ordinance that defines the offense.

Sec. 16-68. Imposition of fines.

(a) In determining the amount and the method of payment of a fine, the court shall, insofar as practicable, proportion the fine to the burden that payment will impose in view of the financial resources of an individual. The court shall not sentence an offender to pay a fine in any amount which will prevent the offender ~~him~~ from making restitution or reparation to the victim of the offense.

(b) When any other disposition is authorized by statute, the court shall not sentence an individual to pay a fine only unless, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and character of the offender, it is of the opinion that the fine alone will suffice for the protection of the public.

(c) The court shall not sentence an individual to pay a fine in addition to any other sentence authorized by section 16-31 unless:

- (1) The defendant ~~He~~ has derived a pecuniary gain from the offense; or

(2) The court is of the opinion that a fine is uniquely adapted to deterrence of the type of offense involved or to the correction of the defendant.

(d) When an offender is sentenced to pay a fine, the court may provide for the payment to be made within a specified period of time or in specified installments. If no such provision is made a part of the sentence, the fine shall be payable forthwith.

(e) When an offender is sentenced to pay a fine, the court shall not impose at the same time an alternative sentence to be served in the event that the fine is not paid. The response of the court to nonpayment shall be determined only after the fine has not been paid, as provided in section 16-69.

Sec. 16-69. Response to nonpayment.

(a) When an offender sentenced to pay a fine defaults in the payment of the fine or in any installment, the court upon motion of the city counselor or upon its own motion may require the offender ~~him~~ to show cause why the court ~~he~~ should not ~~be~~ confine the offender ~~imprisoned~~ for nonpayment. The court may issue a warrant of arrest or a summons for the offender's ~~his~~ appearance.

(b) Following an order to show cause under paragraph (a) of this section, unless the offender shows that such ~~his~~ default was not attributable to an intentional refusal to obey the sentence of the court, or not attributable to a failure ~~on his part~~ to make a good faith effort to obtain the necessary funds for payment, the court may order the defendant confined ~~imprisoned~~ for a term not to exceed thirty (30) days if the fine was imposed for conviction of a misdemeanor or infraction. The court may provide in its order that payment or satisfaction of the fine at any time will entitle the offender to ~~his~~ release from such confinement ~~imprisonment~~ or, after entering the order, may at any time reduce the sentence for good cause shown, including payment or satisfaction of the fine.

(c) If it appears that the default in the payment of a fine is excusable under the standards set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, the court may enter an order allowing the offender additional time for payment, reducing the amount of the fine or of each installment, or revoking the fine or the unpaid portion in whole or in part.

(d) When a fine is imposed on a corporation it is the duty of the person or persons authorized to make disbursement of the assets of the corporation and their superiors to pay the fine from the assets of the corporation. The failure of such persons to do so shall render them subject to confinement ~~imprisonment~~ under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(e) Upon default in the payment of a fine or any installment thereof, the fine may be collected by any means authorized for the enforcement of money judgments.

SECTION 5. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.
