Hello Brad -

As the owner of 501 and 505 Fay Street this is a note of support for the expansion plans by Logboat Brewing. I was one of the first to move to the area and was glad to see Logboat follow shortly thereafter.

They have been great neighbors and as you know many others have moved to the area to be close to Logboat and the traffic they draw.

Please support this important business as all of their neighbors do.

Respectfully,
Terry Woodruff

Good morning Brad. I'm writing this morning to express to you that Columbia College fully supports Logboat Brewing Company's request for rezoning and replatting of their property described in case #223-2021 and #225-2021. Logboat adds vibrancy and excitement to our neighborhood and these changes will support their continued operation. When our neighbors succeed, the entire community succeeds.

Respectfully

Cliff

Dear Mr. Kelly:

re: case #223-2021
case #225-2021

We are responding to the rezoning request for the Logboat Expansion.

As previous owners of:

1107 Hinkson (now 501 Fay) Historic Diggs Bldg.

504 Fay

1205 Hinkson

Lot on College

1207 Rogers & 1203 Hinkson

and, current owners of 1207 Hinkson and 1211(16) Hinkson,

we wish to offer our support for this request.

The realization of our vision to preserve this area began with the rehabilitation of 1107 Hinkson in 2006. The addition in 2013 of Logboat, at 504 Fay, furthered that vision.

We are pleased Logboat has chosen to continue their growth in this location.

Sincerely,

Dale and Audrey Diggs

Hi Brad,

John and I (Alley A Realty) support the rezoning of the parcel next to Logboat. It makes sense to us that the business district would extend east to College Avenue from Fay Street. The expansion of an adjacent business (Logboat) with a track record of being community minded and supporting our local economy is an added bonus.

Thank you,
