SB 754 and Board's Recommendation on its impact

Reece Ellis gave a report on SB 754 and its impacts. The Board discussed SB 754. Doug Hunt provided a handout with his motions on it.

Denise Balazic made a motion to send a report to the City Council to recommend that staff, in consultation with one or more representatives of the CPRB to draft for the City Council's approval a plan for adapting the ordinances to the provisions of SB 754; and that plan shall at a minimum include at least the following elements:

- (1) A modification of the forms that citizens use to file complaints and appeals, so that citizens can indicate by simply checking boxes whether the complaint involves any or all of the following: excessive use of force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, use of offensive language, or other.
- (2) A restoration of the ability of Council-appointed citizens to do the duties listed in Section 21-49 (items 2, 3, 4, 5, 6) of the City Code. If these duties now cannot be accomplished by the CPRB, the Council may want to assign them to another body, either by reconfiguring an existing board or by creating a new one.

Reece Ellis seconded the motion.
