Re: Contract between City of Columbia and Columbia Access Television (CAT)

Executive Summary

Representatives from the City Legal Department, the Office of Cultural Affairs, and CAT have reviewed this contract. This contract represents an agreement between CAT and the City about the details of CAT's scope of services and responsibilities in order to receive monies previously voted on by Council.

Discussion

CAT will receive $35,000 from the City in FY17 for services rendered. Scope of services includes complimentary memberships to 27 OCA funded agencies in which the groups may consult with CAT on their range of services to benefit the organization. CAT will also host a 30-minute arts and culture program in collaboration with the OCA that will feature Columbia arts and culture agencies.
