

View looking southwest from Business Loop 70. The block retaining wall will be extended southward along Jackson St. to the location of the first concrete drive approach, and a new sidewalk installed at the back of curb. The sidewalk was required to be constructed by the owner of Kia of Columbia by the Building and Site Development Division, in order to obtain a building permit to construct a building addition.

