

AT A GLANCE

Columbia Water & Light's Electric Transmission and Substation Project HISTORICAL INFORMATION

2007
Need for substation & transmission identified

Jan. 2009
Interested Parties meeting for substation

March 2010
City Council approved acquiring substation property

Feb. 2010
Project overview at Council work session

April 2011
Council authorized engineering firm contract change to explore Option B

April 2011
Report to Council re: feedback reviewed to determine best route for Option A

Feb. 2011
Report with comments from Option A area residents and cost/details re: undergrounding lines

Aug. 2012
Report to the City Council on Option B route options & feedback from area residents. Option B-2 was suggested by staff for route on city-owned property

June 2013
City Council work session – complete history of project

May 2013
Report to Council – reviewed community feedback

Jan. 2013
Letter about project survey was sent to 39,500 Columbia Water & Light electric customers

Sept. 2009
Criteria for proposed transmission line routes reviewed at work session

Oct. 2010
Three Interested Parties meetings for ten proposed routes for Option A*

Aug. 2011
Report to the City Council on eight possible Option B routes

Nov. 2012
Interested Parties meeting – review of Option A & B*. EMF discussed

July 2013
City Council Public Hearing – Option A to be built overhead was decided

Nov. 2010
Work session-comments from area residents and EMF info. Council asked for another route option

Sept. 2011
Interested Parties meeting with possible routes for Option B reviewed*

2013 - 2015
Customers/property owners & neighborhood/home owners associations within 150 feet of route notified of survey and soil sampling

Jan. 2015
Council work session - project website and hotline reviewed

April 2015
Bond election – included funding for transmission/substation

Sept. 30, 2015
Open House for transmission structure placements