

Attendance Issues

Two members of the working group, Mr. Tony Grove and Mr. Robert Wolverton, have missed more than 25% of the regular meetings and more than three consecutive meetings without being excused:

In accordance with Council Bill R 136-20, which formed the working group, these members have automatically forfeited their office.

The loss of their participation is very concerning since they would have brought an important viewpoint that the working group needed to maintain the diversity of experience that the Council intended. The other members of the working group have shown good attendance and are working well together as a group.
