Re: BridgePay Contract

Executive Summary

Enter into a contract with BridgePay to provide gateway services for customers making payments online for Energov.

Discussion

Tyler Technologies requires the use of one of two payment gateways in order to transmit payment data to/from the city's payment processor. BridgePay is one of those gateways and they can leverage the city's current payment processing contract. This contract is necessary to take Energov payments online via the Citizen's Self-serve module of Tyler.
