Re: Public Hearing for the Relocation of Route H at the Columbia Regional Airport.

Executive Summary

A public hearing is being held related to the relocation of Route H at the Columbia Regional Airport. Staff anticipates that the project will be constructed in the summer of 2019. An interested parties' meeting was held on November 20, 2018. At the conclusion of this meeting there were no objections to this project being completed.

Discussion

This project includes relocating Route H to the northeast. This relocation will allow the extension of the primary runway 900 feet to the north and was identified and approved by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) in the Capital Improvement Plan. The FAA will fund $2,940,113.00 (90%) of the project, Missouri Department of Transportation (MoDOT) will fund $163,340.00 (5%), and the City will fund $163,340.00 (5%) for a total construction cost of $3,266,793.00.

Council authorized a professional engineering services agreement with Burns & McDonnell in February of 2017 to provide the design services for this project.

Fiscal Impact

Short-Term Impact: The construction costs for this project total $3,266,793.00 and is being funded by FAA $2,940,113.00 (90%), MoDOT $163,340.00 (5%), and City TST $163,340.00 (5%).
