I. CALL TO ORDER - 1:00 PM

II. HPC Speaker Series - "The Historic Columbia Branch Railroad"

The Columbia Historic Preservation Commission is partnering with Daniel Boone Regional Library to bring you a presentation from local historian and author Marty Paten on the historic Columbia Branch Railroad. Mr. Paten's presentation will include a slideshow and a talk on this locally important transportation corridor, as well as a display of artifacts and railroad memorabilia from the author's personal collection.

Marty Paten is the founder of Boone County Historical Investigation Services and the owner of H.A.G.R. Publishing. He is the author of "The Columbia Branch Railroad" and is one of the foremost authorities on the history of what was Boone County's earliest functioning railroad.

A quorum of the HPC membership is expected at this event; however, no official business will be discussed during the event.

III. ADJOURNMENT - Approximately 3:00 PM

Members of the public may attend any open meeting. For requests for accommodations related to disability, please call 573-874-CITY (573-874-2489) or email CITY@CoMo.gov. In order to assist staff in making the appropriate arrangements for your accommodation, please make your request as far in advance of the posted meeting date as possible.
