

Equity is recognizing and removing the underlying practices and policies that prevent members of the community from succeeding.

We are committed to intentionally and actively redressing barriers, challenging discrimination and bias, and institutionalizing access and resources that address historical and contemporary social inequalities.