Re: Council Report: Traffic Stops

Executive Summary

There is a history of disparity in traffic stops, and there has been, and will continue to be, a continuing effort to address bias in policing and in traffic stops. This is a report to update council and the community as to progress, challenges, and future opportunities related to policing and traffic stops.

Discussion

Since 2019 the Columbia Police Department has worked internally and with community advisors to review traffic stop data; collect new information that highlights needs for policy and training revisions; and strengthen relationships between police and other community members. This memo will be supplemented with other materials.
