The Commission discussed how to move forward with the data received to date. It was noted that there was a steep decline in responses after the initial burst. The Commission member expressed a concern with their not being enough survey results to report back to the City Council on this matter. They discussed other methods for reaching the public in order to receive additional input.

The Commission is required to hold four public input sessions and two have been held. There was discussion on when they would hold another public input session. The Commission decided to hold their third public input session on Monday, November 7, 2022 at 7:00 p.m. which coincides with the regular Council meeting. Renee and Jay will attend on behalf of the Commission members.

The Commission discussed a fourth public input session to be held on December 10, 2-5pm at the Armory which coincides with City Kwanzaa Celebration and Black-Owned Business Expo.. Tish will look into this and obtain additional details regarding the event and send it to Carol via email. Tish and Renee volunteered to work the event.

Sasha volunteered to post the information on social media, including Next Door; draft email requesting Council share information during regular office hours; send to Carol for distribution.

The Commission members agreed to close the survey at the end of December; compile the data in January with a report to Council at the beginning of 2023.

There was a concern raised about the website - location. Tish will update the blurb and send proposed language to Carol.
