VI. STAFF REPORTS

A. FY 24 CLG Grant Update (Preservation Plan)

Mr. Palmer reported there are no significant updates on the RFP at this time. Expects to have bids for February or March meeting review and approval.

VII. OLD BUSINESS

A. McKinney Building Tour

Commissioners discussed setting a time to tour the recently-purchased McKinney Building, now owned by the City. A time of 10AM on Friday, January 5th was decided upon.

Mr. Palmer reminded the Commission that touring shifts would be limited to no more than 3 members, since the building cannot be opened to the public at this time.

Liaison Palmer also indicated that he expects at least one Commissioner to be selected for the Mayor's taskforce for programming future uses of the building.

B. Annual Speaker Series

Commissioner Bybee reported that he has scheduled Marty Peyton to speak on the the Columbia Branch Railroad (Wabash/COLT) on February 3rd at Daniel Boone Regional Library.

C. Most Notable Properties Event Planning

Mr. Palmer indicated that reservations need to be made securing the Reichmann Pavilion in Stephens Lake Park for the event. He asked that the Commission allocate up to $500 for the reservation fee.

Commissioner Bybee moved to allocate up to $500 for the reservation.

Commissioner Hagen seconded and the motion passed unanimously by voice vote.

Commissioners reviewed applications for 2024 Most Notable Properties recognition.

Commissioners moved to separately approve the nominations of the following properties: 208 S.Garth, 313 West Boulevard S., 518 Noble Court, 209 S. Glenwood, Stephens Library, Alspaugh Farm, and Broadway Diner.

Each motion was seconded and passed unanimously by voice vote.

Properties not selected for recognition (705 S. Greenwood and 805 Greenwood Court) are invited to reapply in the future. Commissioners expressed a desire for more interior photos of the homes for consideration.

B. Henry Kirklin Home - For Sale

Commissioner Bybee shared a number of photos he took of the Henry Kirklin Home and discussed the potential sale of the property now that it is on the market. Mr. Bybee expressed concerns about the potential to lose the structure to demolition, and indicated a desire to facilitate the sale of the property to a preservation-minded organization or individual.

Mr. Bybee then provisionally nominated the property for Most Notable Properties recognition, pursuant to the owner's authorization. Mr. Bybee had been in contact with the owner who had shown interest in the program, but had not yet signed the application.

Commissioner Hagen seconded and the motion passed unanimously by voice vote.

C. African American Cultural Heritage Action Fund Grand Program
