Civic Spending Exercise with City Council and Department Heads

City Manager John Glascock stated that this exercise was put together as a way to gauge priorities from citizens and help educate them on our budgeting process. The exercise tonight may be used again in the future for the public, so any feedback to the planning team is appreciated. Sara Humm, Community Relations Specialist, provided an overview of how the exercise would be completed and asked that feedback and suggestions be sent to her by email at Sara.Humm@CoMo.gov.

Department heads and Council members were divided into small groups to complete the exercise and each table had a facilitator. This was a timed exercise which was completed in 45 minutes. After the exercise was completed, each team briefly reported out about the decisions that were made at each table during the exercise.
