V. OLD BUSINESS

CCLT Transition Discussion: The Board discussed potential options for the CCLT transition, including partnering with the Columbia Housing Authority, staying with the City, or becoming independent. Stanton and Head suggested that LaBrunerie coordinate with the CCLT lawyer to draft a Letter of Intent for the CCLT to respond to CHA, but that the CCLT Board meet to review the letter before submitting it to CHA. The Letter of Intent should inquire about a path to independence in the next 3 to 5 years, physical space, the powers of the advisory board, and having a dedicated staff member for the CCLT at CHA.

Amelunke left the meeting at 6:21pm.

Motion to draft a Letter of Intent to the Columbia Housing Authority pending review from the Board: Stanton

Motion to 2nd: Cristal
Not voting: Ross and Trotter
Opposed: Stanton
Motion passes: 6:1

Stanton requested that he be given approval by the Board to explore all options for transition by reaching out to organizations and individuals who might be interested in partnering with and/or donating to the CCLT.

The Board requests another special meeting be held as soon as possible after the Letter of Intent is drafted, possibly the week of July 11th. Staff will reach out to the Board to schedule this.
