

To Whom It May Concern

My name is Frances Lakatos and I reside at 300 N 9th street. I am writing to recommend the property at 302 North 9th street continue to be allowed to function as an Air bnb. The property is really well maintained, grass and foliage is always kept neat and tidy, as well as the home itself is in excellent condition. I have lived at 300 North 9th for 2 years and have never had any issues with 302. They share a drive and parking space with my home as there has never been a single issue arisen. Devon, the owner of 302 is very responsive and open communications with me whenever there is anything he wants to share with me.

I recently had some out-of-town visitors and they stayed at 302. Devon was super helpful and transparent about all billing and directions and care of the house. My friends thoroughly enjoyed their stay.

Again, I would have no issue with 302 North 9th continuing to function as an air bnb.

Thank you for your consideration,

Frances Lakatos

To whom it may concern,

My small cleaning business provides housekeeping services at 302 N 9th Street as part of Devin and Kara Kelley's short term rental operations. Devin and Kara keep this home very well maintained and take pride in their space. The home carries a wonderful representation of Columbia's personality, and we love being part of providing a great place for Columbia guests to stay. Together, we are able to create a positive and safe space for others to enjoy while visiting the heart of Columbia. I am writing this to share that I am in favor of their home continuing to operate as a STR.

Warmly,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Tiffany Keipp". The script is cursive and fluid, with the first name "Tiffany" and last name "Keipp" clearly legible.
