NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual terms, covenants and conditions contained herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

Section 1. Commitment of the City. The City agrees to provide CFCM with office space, administrative and clerical support staff, supplies, telephone, computer and other resources necessary and reasonable to support the mission of CFCM, which the City Council finds to have a public purpose. The support provided by the City shall be non- exclusive, meaning the City may use the administrative and clerical support staff and office space and equipment provided for the support of CFCM for other public purposes as designated in the sole discretion of the City Manager. Staff to assist the CFCM shall be designated by the City Manager and shall be an employee(s) of the City subject solely to the direction and control of the City Manager and City personnel policies and procedures. Section 2. Commitment of CFCM. In addition to its general support and growth of philanthropic efforts for the public good, CFCM agrees to use the resources provided by the City hereunder to work diligently to promote private giving to provide for the beautification of the city, the natural use of land, better transportation facilities, encouragement of the arts, recreation, historic preservation, architectural enhancement, facilitation of public health, and the general lessening of the costs and burdens of municipal government. CFCM shall provide an annual report to the City Council of its activities on or before April 1st for the preceding calendar year, which report shall include a complete accounting of all revenues and expenditures of CFCM.

CFCM shall pay the City on a fiscal year basis, beginning on the period October 1, 2023 through September 31, 2024, and for each fiscal year thereafter on or before the first day of October. The sum for fiscal year 2024 shall be $46,797. Thereafter, the sum shall automatically increase by 5% per fiscal year as set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto. CFCM may, from time to time, pay additional funds to the City to reimburse the City for its expenses associated with City’s commitment set forth in Section 1 hereof. In such event, such additional funds will be accepted and appropriated by the City Council at the time such payment is made, taking into account the recommendation of the CFCM.
