VI. OLD BUSINESS

VII. NEW BUSINESS

Content Creation for Social Media

The Youth Advisory Subcommittee drafted the logo for the group. They created a variety of samples that Salazar will send to staff for recommended edits. Additionally, the group went out the drafted cover posts and suggested font edits, and color schemes. Grace Harris provided a detailed list of post and the information the information that they would work on adding to their posts.

Salazar mentioned that draft posts needed to be sent to her by April 1st, to ensure that city staff had enough time to provide suggested edits, and give time for the members to make those edits before they were sent back to be published by April 20th.

Salazar will check in to see if the promo post will be created by the subcommittee or staff.
