Re: Food Council adding two Boone County seats

Executive Summary

The Food Council has submitted a memo to request two Boone County seats to be added to the Food Council's current body.

Discussion

Food Council has submitted the attached request outlining the council's collective interest in adding two county representatives. Currently, the Food Council has nine members. While all members have experience that may stretch beyond the City of Columbia, the Food Council feels that the addition of two county representatives will help to contribute to a more well-rounded council.
