B. Supplemental use-specific standards. The following standards shall be applicable to all short-term rentals regardless of their "tier" of designation.

Such registration shall follow the provisions of chapter 22 (Rental Conversation Law) of the City Code, shall be submitted on forms provided by the City, and shall grant the City the right to inspect the dwelling unit for compliance with all the applicable codes.
2. Limits on Licensure. A maximum of one (1) short-term rental certificate may be issued per owner or authorized tenant.
3. Proof of ownership. Concurrent with submission of registration forms provided by the City, the property owner or authorized tenant shall submit an affidavit affirming the following:

5. Maximum occupancy. The maximum number of occupants permitted in a dwelling unit offered and operated as a short-term rental shall be subject to the "occupancy limitations" of the most recently adopted edition of the International Property Maintenance Code (IPMC). In no instance, regardless of short-term rental tier designation, shall a dwelling unit be occupied by more than a total of eight (8) occupants.
6. Reservations. Only one rental reservation at a time shall be permissible for each short-term rental. If rented "in part" and additional occupancy is permitted, it shall be unlawful to have a second reservation for the same dwelling.

7. Dwelling unit usage. Dwellings licensed for short-term rental usage shall not be used for special events such as weddings, corporate events, commercial functions, large parties (greater than 8 persons), and other similar events or activities otherwise prohibited by this code.
8. Certificate of Compliance Posting. 9. Rental Platform Identification. It shall be unlawful to list a short-term rental on any website or other media without first obtaining a certificate of compliance from the City. Any website or media listing of the dwelling unit shall include the certificate of compliance licensing number. Concurrent with the application to register a dwelling unit as a short-term rental and annually thereafter, the owner/authorized tenant shall provide the City with a list of all specific website or other media where the dwelling unit will be advertised for rental purposes.
10. Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) usage. An ADU may be permitted to be utilized as a short-term rental subject to compliance with the provisions of this subsection (uu) and all other applicable provisions of this code, provided not more than one dwelling unit upon the property is registered for use as a short-term rental.

11. Signage. One (1) non-illuminated building-mounted sign no greater than one (1) square foot in area shall be permitted to identify the dwelling unit as a short-term rental. One (1) non-illuminated onsite directional sign no greater than one-half (1/2) square foot in area shall be permitted for guest way-finding purposes.
12. Compliance. It shall be unlawful to offer a dwelling unit, in part or in whole, as a short-term rental without complying with the provision of this subsection (uu) and having obtained a Business License and a Certificate of Compliance pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13 (Business License) and chapter 22, article V (Rental Conservation Law) of this Code within 365 days of the effective date of this ordinance on forms provided by the City.
13. Short-term rental certificate of compliance non-transferable. An active certificate of compliance authorizing the use of a dwelling unit as a short-term rental and, if applicable, any conditional use permit granted under the provisions of section 29-6.4 (conditional use permit), shall be void upon the sale of the property. Application to re-establish the dwelling unit as a short-term rental shall be subject to all requirements of this Code and shall be submitted in compliance with the provisions of chapter 13 (Business License) and chapter 22, article V (Rental Conservation Law).
14. Revocation of a certificate of compliance – short-term rental. Operation of a short-term rental, regardless of classification, in violation of any of the provisions of this subsection (uu) of this section shall constitute a violation of this Code and shall be subject to any fines and penalties of such. Any property owner or authorized tenant who has had their short-term rental certificate of compliance revoked shall be required to seek a conditional use permit to re-establish the short-term rental.

The following subsection (iv) is to be added to the Section 29-6.4(m)(2) of the Unified Development Code (UDC) as new conditional use permit (CUP) review criteria relating to short-term rentals. Strikethrough text to be deleted and underlined text to be added.
