Are we able to use our garbage cans at the curb as of Jan 2nd as well or still to leave the bags curb side for pick up? I am in hopes that we can start using our outdoor receptacles curbside whole awaiting roll cart approval. Thank you for listening to the citizens of Columbia

A

Publicly Answered

If the proposed change is adopted, customers will place any style of trash bag at the street on their appropriate collection day. We would no longer be requiring City logoed bags. All trash must be in a bag and weigh less than 50 pounds. Customers will not be able to use garbage cans as part of the proposed change.

If we buy bags, would the solid waste utility charge be reduced since charge now includes bags provided?

Publicly Answered

The proposed changes to the trash bag program are a first step in evaluating trash collections as a whole. As the City evaluates changes to collections, the necessary utility rate will also be evaluated.

First, I believe the cost of bags is included in our monthly refuse collection fee. Will this savings be passed on to us? Or will the city just keep it and make believe they don't owe us? Second, will we still receive recycling bags? Will this have any effect on the recycling program?

Publicly Answered

The proposed changes to the trash bag program are a first step in evaluating trash collections as a whole. As the City evaluates changes to collections, the necessary utility rate will also be evaluated. The City will continue to provide vouchers for blue recycling bags. The recycling program will continue to operate as it currently does.

Will there be a reduction in waste collection if residents purchase their own trash bags?

A

Publicly Answered

It is undetermined at this time if there would be a reduction in waste from the proposed change.

Good afternoon. Does the proposed ordinance apply to recycle bags as well? If so, what type of bag will be required for cans, bottles and plastics? Thank you.

A

Publicly Answered

There are no proposed changes to the recycling bag program. The City will continue to provide recycling bag vouchers and blue bags for the recycling program.

We are being buried in high prices, looking at 14 year high natural gas prices & you charge a lot of money for cheap bags! We have to pay school lunches, water, light & try to buy food. As a homeless population grows with crime, how are we to be safe in a town that does not care for those who does not receive any aid? Potholes tearing up our cars, property tax increases & for what? High crime?

Publicly Answered

As part of the proposed change to trash collections, the City would no longer require the use of City logoed trash bags. The City will, however, continue to provide vouchers for City provided trash bags until the remaining supply of bags is exhausted. The vouchers could still be redeemed at the local participating stores and City Hall.

1. Will this affect the curbside recycling program in any way? 2. It's been my understanding that making folks pay to throw more things away has incentivized them to recycle more. Other municipalities issue a set of stickers that people tag their bags with. This lets them use their bag of choice while still encouraging them to recycle or compost some of their waste by limiting the number of tags provided (more can be purchased, I assume). Has the sticker-system been considered? 3. Will people be able to put their bags in carts or bins? 4. The current system seems to work pretty well in our neighborhood. A better education effort probably needs to be made with new renters, but neighbors learn eventually. Are there areas of town where this system has failed spectacularly? 5. Would the bulky-items policy still be the same? 6. What are some concerns that City staff has about implementation? Like, folks putting out 10 small bags instead of two standard bags, or people using the thinnest possible bags, which increase trash spillage. 7. Will the solid-waste fees change at all? This is effectively a rate increase if the fee doesn't change. Thanks! :)

Publicly Answered

There are no proposed changes to the recycling system at this point. The City opted against a sticker program based on the potential ease of counterfeit stickers. All trash must be in a bag and weigh less than 50 pounds. Customers will not be able to use garbage cans or bins as part of the proposed change. The program has been consistent in its effectiveness across the City. No noticeable difference in collections exists from one area to another. There are no proposed changes to the bulky-item policy. The Solid Waste Utility could see an increase in volume in the spring and fall based on leaves, yard cleanup, landscaping, or spring cleaning. Outside of those times, the service remains fairly consistent regardless of logoed bags or the Utility's experience with the requirement to put items into a bag regardless of logo. The proposed changes to the trash bag program are a first step in evaluating trash collections as a whole. As the City evaluates changes to collections, the necessary utility rate will also be evaluated.

Why not let residents chose what size roll cart they want and then charge accordingly? This is what they do in many o ther cities in the US and it seems fair. Don't short change a new program before it even gets off the ground. Those wh o generate less trash shouldn't pay the same as a large family who generates more trash. Fair is fair.

Publicly Answered

The proposed change does not consider the implementation of a roll cart system. At this point, the City is only consid ering changes to the requirement to use City logoed trash bags.

Are items recycled curbside actually recycled? Or do they just end up in the trash? I used to live in the pacific northwe st with a very robust recycling, incentivized trash, and curbside industrial composting system that was way simpler an d more effective. However, they could not find buyers for this like plastic clamshells that CoMo accepts. 1. What is ha ppening to the plastic recyclables? If there are no buyers then should we be recycling if that should go inthe trash? Se ems like that is an area to look into for cost savings. I am pro recycling but anti wasting money/ effort if it ends up in a landfill anyway. 2. Please stop increasing the use of single use plastics. I bet that using blue recycling bags and recycl ing things that aren't actually very recyclable is worse for environment than just putting in trash. Please phase out city trash bags- increases volume of wasteful single use plastics. Reduce and reuse make a bigger impact than recycle. 3. Why aren't we discussing roll carts yet? I have lived thru the transition to roll carts in Baltimore, md (more poverty and logistical issues than Columbia) and they were widely successful.

There are no proposed changes to the recycling bag program. The City will continue to provide recycling bag voucher s and blue bags for the recycling program. The proposed changes to the trash bag program are a first step in evaluati ng trash collections as a whole.

11 November 22 jenncooper24	No more logo bags It's deeply inconvenient to have to go to a specific retailer to obtain the special city bags. I find I throw away more when using logo bags vs. using a regular 13 gallon kitchen trash bag. The city bags are not quality (they leak). Animals bust into the bags leaving streets messy. I'd prefer roll carts and recycle bins for all recyclable materials, but for some reason we like to die on this weird hill. I'll settle on not using logo bags.

11 November 22 wright.matt.a	Yes to rollcarts, no to city logo bags!
VOTES 7	Big yes to the removal of the city logo bag requirement! Please use some of the savings to implement an assistance program for low income folks who may need help buying bags. Also big yes to rollcarts in the very near future! I definitely support the default use of the smallest rollcart size (around 30 gallons, I believe) rather than the middle one that was mentioned in the council work session (60 gallons?). At least for the central city and other smaller/denser neighborhoods, the smaller the cart the better. Also the smallest cart is more in line with the current 2 bag maximum, and I still support encouraging people to reduce their waste. People can request a larger cart if they need it, but the default should be the smallest size. Thank you for finally fixing this ridiculousness so we can talk about something other than trash!
11 November 22 ruthie	When the city demanded using logo bags near the start of the pandemic I was struck by the callousness to waste. Many had non-logo bags.

11 November 22 lkester <hr/> VOTES 10	Use roll carts-green for trash, blue for recyclables. I've lived many places that use green roll carts large enough to easily hold a week's worth of garbage and blue roll carts large enough to store recyclables for two weeks before pick up. In some towns, the recyclables are picked up weekly and they use slightly smaller roll carts. It encourages less plastic to go into the landfill as often trash just goes directly into the roll cart. Right now we use plastic bags stuffed not another plastic bag.. .not cool! Let's get rid of these logo bags! I fully recognize that you will also have to invest in modifications to the trucks so that they can hook onto the carts and dump. Perhaps this will save money on labor, too??? If you want an example, Prescott, AZ, uses roll carts as I've described and would be happy to share their experiences, I'm sure.
11 November 22 thejollyrev <hr/> VOTES 5	Yes, let's get rid proprietary bags and better yet, get roll carts for trash and recycling. Yard waste could be either a roll cart or bags.
11 November 22 sflletcher <hr/> VOTES 6	Bins/rolling carts, PLEASE! I'm disabled, and carrying those trash bags to the curb is extremely difficult and painful, to the point where I have to have the other members of my household do the trash. Rolling carts are so much easier. Not to mention using plastic bags like this is extremely wasteful, especially in regards to the fact that the recycling is half the size of the trash and done half as frequently (Wouldn't you want more recycling, not less?). For the sake of my pain levels, please use bins/rolling carts.
11 November 22 robertcheek <hr/> VOTES 6	Roll Carts!!! I have resided in Columbia for over 50 years and amazed at the twisted thinking of our citizens and our city government when it comes solid waste disposal. Finally, after thirty years of mismanagement of the solid waste department a major breakthrough has occurred— we now are responsible for purchasing our own trash bags. Since it appears that we the citizens and the city government are on a literal enlightened roll, maybe we can skip the next thirty years and move to roll carts like the rest of the world including Jefferson City. Who is kidding who when it comes to trash collection? How safe is it for city workers and residents to handle trash bags? Has the city disclosed the injuries solid waste workers experienced over the last ten years? Additionally, what happens to the bags when animals including rats get into the trash bags? Has anyone heard of the bubonic plague? Time has finally come to get with the program and modernize our solid waste system, embrace modern technology and move to roll cart collection.

11 November 22 Ruthann1952 VOTES 3	Get rid of the city logo bags. They are expensive to purchase but made very cheaply, and frequently tear when we are trying to tie them.
11 November 22 1h9t9b2 VOTES 4	"Logo" bags are wasteful, expensive and inconvenient. The logo bag system is greatly flawed. These bags create MORE waste (harmful to our environment) when residents could throw their trash away in other eco-friendly bags. We know residents sometimes use two trash bags (one non-city-approved bag, wrapped in a city-approved bag), which is again, wasteful, and expensive. To replace the logo bags is expensive after vouchers have been used. We've always had a difficult time replacing our logo bags, and we don't have to do that but twice a year. I imagine those who create more waste have a more challenging time. This is inconvenient when we can simply go to the store and purchase a bag of our choosing. This plan was falsely proposed to "reduce waste" and help save money for residents who can't afford more trash bags. I would be shocked to learn if the logo bag plan actually made good on these empty promises. I have never understood why our city doesn't have a roll cart system. I come from a very small town with very few resources that had a roll cart system. This would be a convenient way to handle waste - and it would be safer for our city waste management workers. If nothing else, please get rid of the logo bags and let residents handle waste management as they and their pocketbooks see fit, so our city can focus on more important, pressing issues. This has gone on too long.
11 November 22 Lesheets VOTES 9	Let's Ditch the Logo bags and Roll with the Roll Carts I was able to buy a better quality bag for less and meet my families needs. I didn't have to worry about the bag breaking, or the grocery store running out of bags. Also it does keep the animals out of it and it much easier to get to the curb.
11 November 22 dvines1990 VOTES 9	CoMo needs to move to the 21st Century End logo bags implement roll carts quickly as possible
11 November 22 AshleyRyan VOTES 8	No City Logo Bags and YES to Roll Carts & Recycle Bins I've seen several people comment that they have physical limitations that make it difficult or impossible to maneuver a roll cart and thus they prefer the bags. A simple solution: let's leave that as an option. Any one that is unable to use a roll cart can have the option to continue using just bags (not city logo ones of course, get rid of those). For everyone else, please make roll carts an option! They are reusable/sustainable, efficient, keep animals out, less mess, etc. And while we're having this discussion, the city recycle bags go to the landfill. How can anyone that supports recycling and reducing waste support this? The recycling program NEEDS to switch to recycling bins and no wasteful bags that go to the landfill.

VOTES 5	The city doesn't need to supply trash bags at all. Residents can supply their own trash bags and the city saves money. The city can issue a small trash bin to each household. If they want a Medium or Large, they can pay for the difference, allowing the city to charge a household who throws away more, to be charged more. I'm a larger household and fully support "buying up" to a larger size roll cart for our home.

VOTES 5	The bags are terribly made with thin plastic and awful pull ties that usually break. I would welcome roll carts. If that's not in the card and we MUST use pay-per-throw, then send stickers that can be placed on the top of the bags of my choice. Still, I really think the roll carts are the better option. My mother is in her late-80's in ATL and she doesn't struggle to pull out her carts. If people really think they will not be able to move the carts, have them submit a form and then one of the trash collectors can roll it to the truck, then roll it back after it is empty (so long as the carts are stored in a reasonably accessible place in the front or side of the house). But really, wouldn't many of them also have trouble negotiating carrying bags? That being said, I accept that I don't know all situations. The logo bags, however, are just terrible.

11 November 22 stacim87	Get rid of the City Logo Bags if we can't have roll carts! On a personal level, I hate the city logo bags.. Now, from my career side I hate it even more.. I supervise 2 independent supported living homes.. There are a lot of them with in Columbia City Limits.. These people are on fixed incomes as it is. I have 2 individuals who wear brief's. I've supervised a home in the past that had 2 people with ostomy bags.. We put out a lot of trash on trash day.. It is hurting ISL's.. The cost of the bags are ridiculous when you run out and you get a roll of 5 bags.. One of my homes, I have taught how to recycle, but they still put out a lot of trash.. It is a financial burden for people on fixed incomes and even for large families..

13 November 22 ashoberry	City Logo Bags are not necessary I support getting rid of the city provided trash bags and the city logo bags. It is too difficult to find trash bags, as only certain stores sell the city logo bags. There have been supply chain issues in the past, especially during the holidays. It is unsanitary for a family to be unable to purchase and buy extra trash bags. Getting rid of city provided trash bags gives families the ability to buy any trash bag (and a bag that is stronger/won't rip). I also support roll carts for sanitary reasons among many other reasons.

14 November 22 Fourth Ward Mike	Why are we still talking about trash collection at this point? Springfield was using carts when I moved from there to Columbia 22 years ago--and it is in the Ozarks. Most rational cities do. It is cost-effective, safer for employees who collect trash, more environmentally friendly (we double bag because they Columbia bags don't fit our trash can), and prevents animals from tearing into trash bags. Why this is even a voting issue is completely beyond me. If our managers cannot make rational decisions, we need new managers.

Use the savings to transition to roll carts, which is 1980's level trash collection technology.
