NOTE: The following information provides a starting point for historic research on the property. However, a lack of information should not be a deterrent for an application. All properties chosen for Most Notable will have a history of the property compiled by a historic preservation professional. This history will be provided to property owners for their own records.

Has anyone of local, regional, or national historic note ever occupied the property? If so, whom?

Does the property have any notable or unusual architectural qualities? If so, please identify.

Dutch Colonial

Have any recent renovations been performed that have helped restore the property? If so, describe them briefly.

New roof (2023). Restoration of original pond. Preservation of outbuildings - chicken house, garage, tool shed. Continued upkeep and enhancement of original flower beds and landscaping.

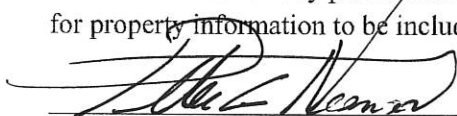

Is the property recognized by any other historic preservation organizations? If so, please identify.

Please describe any other unusual or interesting attributes or stories about the property.

L.W DeCrouch and wife Mattie D. also owned property in the Sharp End district - 4th street / 5th street / Ash Street area. This working farm was originally 20-40 acres and included a large barn.

Please attach current and/or early pictures of the property.
